

National Women & Girls HIV/AIDS Awareness Day March 10, 2010

One Voice United... Teens for an HIV/AIDS Free Generation!

Featured Speaker— Jodilyn Coleman, MA

HIV Clinic Secondary Prevention Specialist, Scranton Temple Healthcare Center

- ✓ Workshops
- ✓ Health Screenings
- ✓ Educational Booths
- ✓ Entertainment and Activities
- ✓ Prizes and Giveaways
- ✓ Food and Refreshments
- ✓ Interactive Artistic Exhibit
- ✓ HIV Counseling and Testing
provided by United Neighborhood Centers
- ✓ Confidential STD Testing
provided by Maternal and Family Health Services
- ✓ Peer Education
- ✓ AND MUCH MORE!!!

**Transportation available—contact Samantha at 570-961-1592 ext. 114.*

Be positive that you're negative!

Join us....March 10, 2010

6:00pm—9:00pm

Progressive Center
United Neighborhood Centers
414 Olive Street, Scranton

For more information, call 800-367-6347 or visit mfhs.org.

A collaborative community services project hosted by Maternal and Family Health Services and United Neighborhood Centers.

