

Nondiscrimination Statement

The State Agency and local agency are required to place the following statement in bold type print or other means of prominently displaying, e.g. underlining, capitalizing, blocking, etc.:

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

Short Version

If the material is too small to permit the full statement to be included, the material will, at a minimum, include the statement "This institution is an equal opportunity provider." in the print size no smaller than the text print size.

Recognizing that radio, television and newspaper announcements are generally short in duration, the nondiscrimination statement does not have to be read in its entirety. Rather, a statement such as "This institution is an equal opportunity provider." is sufficient.
